

Ramayana, the Great Epic of Rama...

Demon Ravana ravaged the lands,
The gods had earth's fate in their hands.

The gods were powerless,
for Ravana was merciless.

For the wish that was granted to him,
was a terrible mistake that made them whim.

But Lord Vishnu split himself into Rama, Bharata, and Laskshmana,
Rama, the mightiest of them all, was born to Kausalya.

King Dasharata was fond of Rama,
But Kystaria was fond of Bharata.

Exiled for 14 years Rama went into the forest, following his dharma, with Sita and Laskshmana,
So into the forest went Rama.

Surpanaka saw handsome Rama and fell in love,
She changed her form into a woman beautiful as a dove.

Rama refused her friendly marriage,
And she turned savage.

Surpanaka went off to Sita,
While Laskshmana was eating pita.

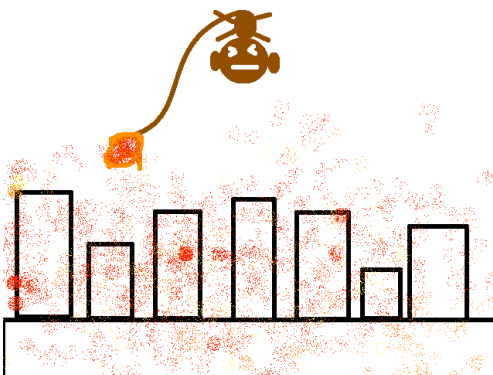

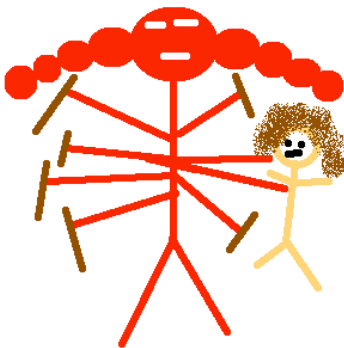

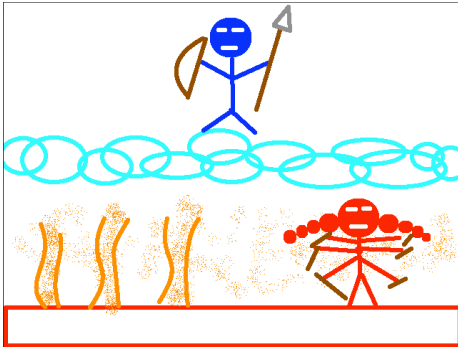

Later Surpanaka lost her nose,
and cried like a hose.

Ravana hearing about Rama,
Went nuts with mama.

Ravana captured Sita from Rama,
Rama planned to rescue Sita with Lakshmana.

Rama gains help from Hanuman son of the wind,
And Hanuman went to have a talk with Ravana upwind.

Poor Hanuman got his tail burnt,
while he burned the village with a lesson learnt.

*Rama gathered his courage marched to Lanka, with is great monkey army and,
Hanuman, and Lakshmana.
Rama ravaged Lanka, saved Sita, and killed, the full of bad karma, Ravana who will proably have a bad samsara.*

